FOLLOW THE CROWD

And You Will Come to Us! The New Idea Has Surely Hit the Mark!

It is very gratifying to us to find so many who appreciate our latest feature in our Soap and Premium Department and we can readily see why they should. As a "matter of fact" it is a straight business proposition, giving our customers a chance to buy goods that they are using about the house and on the table every day, besides getting a premium that is equal in value to one-half their purchase.

At the City Bakery!

On oath and honor we hereby most positively declare that our Double Loaf Malt Bread, made of Pillsbury's flour and by Union bakers, is the best in the State. If you doubt our word try just one loaf and you will be convinced of its superiority to any other. You will notice also that it is white and light and yet firm.

Why is it that Mother's Bread was always good? Because it was made by hand and kneaded, and that is why ours is good. It is properly kneaded. Try one loaf, if no more. All leading grocers and butchers handle it, as follows: Merchant & Fraser, H. J. Smith, Dix & Coleman, Smith & Cummings, Tassie Brothers, John Griffin, J. D. Yandow, Aldrich, Graniteville, and Hopkins, Williamstown. Also leading restaurants and lunch rooms: Spear Brothers, Jack's Lunch Room, Miller's Baltimore Lunch Room and Graniteville Lunch Room.

WE ARE THE LEADING BAKERS AND CATERERS.

DENIED THE RECEIVER.

One Middletown Springs Woman Entitled to Share in Books.

Rutland, Feb. 2.—Judge W. W. Miles has given an opinion in the chancery case, heard here early in the week, in which four women petition for a receiver and distribution of the property of the Middletown Springs Library association. The case was of special interest because all the parties involved were women. The court denied the receiver and ordered the bill dismissed as to Mrs. Mary A. Yale, Mrs. Ella W. Phillips and Mrs. Laura McClure. Mrs. Martha Planchard is entitled to distribution of the books. The petitioners claimed that the defendants misappropriated the property of the library, now defunct.

NIBBLING OF MICE.

Caused Destruction of Homestead in West Rutland.

Rutland, Feb. 2.—The nibbling of matches by mice in the cellar is believed to have been the cause of a fire which yesterday afternoon destroyed the old McGinn homestead with most of its contents at West Rutland, entailing a loss of about $2,000. There is full insurance. The family was away. Neighbors saved the barn and a small quantity of clothing and furniture.

The Daylight Store

Three Big Values in Swiss and St. Gaul Embroideries!

These goods were ordered last Summer, before the sharp advance in prices, and are what the manufacturing trade call drives. They are surely nearly one-third less than we could sell these goods for on a duplicate order.

EMBROIDERERS

Lot No. 1—Embroidered Cambric Edges in 6, 8 and 10c widths, all of them of the special drive, now in this sale at only 5c per yard.

Lot No. 2—There are in this special drive some thirty different designs, comprising over 2,000 yards—Embroideries that would at old prices look cheap to you at from 15 to 25c. All in this sale at one price, 12 1/2c per yard. It's your opportunity for Spring Embroideries.

EMBROIDERIES

Lot No. 3—Is 12 and 14-inch Eyelet and Old English Embroidery for corset covers, skirt flounces and children's dresses. This is a limited lot and sells at only 29c per yard.

Lot No. 4—One lot of Swiss Embroideries from 14 to 18 inches wide for fine corset covers and children's outside dresses, with loop edges and on fine Swiss Muslin. These Embroideries are all that we claim for them. Price, 39c per yard.

EMBROIDERIES

Lot No. 5—Is a drive in Embroideries that you will find unlike every other kind shown in our city. They are sets that bought as usually selected would cost you fully one-third more, making our 50c ones 75c or more.

These are designed for shirt waists and shirt waist suits, also any white embroidered costumes. This is a larger lot than we usually buy. We are expecting our low prices to make this sale a booming success.

White India Linons, bought last June, will be in this sale at 12 1/2c, 15c and 20c per yard.
